4. Comments made by Dwight McCullough concerning his vote against sanctioning Log Cabin Republicans as affiliates.

5. Anna Mathews from Emmer's office gave an update on a Teletown Hall on Wednesday, April 21, the Chauvin trial, seniors, censure of Maxine Waters (he was one of four authors on that bill), signed on to stop late term abortion, voted against HR1, HR5, HR7 and the $2,140,000,000,000.00 infrastructure bill. Tom was re-elected as chair of the NRCC.

Question was asked of Anna who paid for Waters plane ticket and police protection. Michelle Fishbach is looking in to it. She was also asked where to go to get the true news. For browsers, DuckDuckGo and Brave were mentioned. For other websites, Telegram, Epoch Times, OAN, Rumble, The Dan Bongino show, USAWatchdog.com.

6. County Commissioner Matt Look gave an update on issues concerning Anoka County. Talked about increasing police funding, removing of rioters, shutting down the Northstar Line, and being under attack from liberals. Work is continuing on Hwy 10 between 7th Ave. and Thurston. Bunker Lake Road will become the new Anoka County Highway 10. He was asked if there was anything the county could do about the mask mandates. The answer was no.

7. Mayor of Oak Grove Dan Denno made comments about the Recycle Days, the mask mandate newsletter reports that he has been writing, being in attendance in Washington on Jan. 6, Jake Dusenberg's groups going to Trader Joe's to fight the mask mandate, his attendance at the Ramsey City Council meeting to give support for the no enforcement ordinance concerning governor's edicts.

8. ISD 15 School Board member Scott Schwartz and Pam Johnson spoke of trying to get masks removed for student athlete's. Also trying to get rid of masks completely by fall. Spoke of masks versus shields in the schools.

9. Ramsey Councilmembers Chelsee Howell and Debra Musgrove spoke about their issues with passing the ordinance that does not allow city funds to be spent for enforcing the governor's edicts. Also again touched on stores and areas that a person could go to or shop at that would not mandate that you wore a mask. People mentioned Target, Home Depot, Festival Foods, Bill's Supperette.

10. Retired St. Paul Police officer Carl Schwanbeck gave a very heartfelt talk concerning the police issues of the day, with certain cities not backing the police. We need to back the police all the more. Referred to the Chauvin trial and how it appears that he is being sacrificed for the benefit of Minneapolis.

11. CD6 Regional Vice Chair and Liberty Tea Party Patriots spoke about the support that CD6 is giving to SD31. She spoke about the May 6 Tea Party meeting having speakers talking about election fraud and efforts to prevent it. June 3 they will have Kendall Quall speaking.
